Tips & Tricks to Solve Para Jumbles

1. Look for the Opening Sentence

- The introduction usually sets the context.
- Clues:
  - General statements (not specific details).
  - Names of people/places introduced for the first time.
  - No pronouns like he, she, it, this, that (because they refer to something already mentioned).

Example:
A. He then went to the market.
B. Ramesh woke up early in the morning. (Opening sentence)
C. There he bought vegetables.

2. Identify the Closing Sentence

It often concludes or summarizes.

Clues:

- Words like thus, therefore, finally, hence, in conclusion.
- Statements that wrap up the idea.

Example:

A. The team trained hard for the match.
B. They worked on fitness and strategies.
C. Finally, their efforts paid off when they won. (Closing sentence)

3. Find Mandatory Pairs (Link Sentences Together)

Some sentences always go together because one leads to the other.

Look for:

- Pronouns (he, this, these, such, they).
- Cause-and-effect connectors (because, so, therefore, however).

Example:

A. The rain was heavy.
B. Therefore, the match was canceled.

Strategy to Solve in Exam

- Read all sentences quickly once.
- Spot the intro sentence.
- Find pairs of linked sentences.
- Arrange pairs into a logical order.
- Look for the ending sentence.
- Re-read the sequence → It should sound coherent and natural.
