Question 24

Read the passage and answer the questions that follow : Once upon a time, in a quaint little village nestled in a picturesque valley, there lived a young girl named Lily. She was known for her adventurous spirit and her deep curiosity. One sunny afternoon, while exploring the woods that bordered the village, Lily stumbled upon a hidden clearing. In the center of this secret meadow, she found an old oak tree with a peculiar nook. In that nook, half-buried in the earth, was a mysterious locket, ornate and gleaming with intricate designs. Lily carefully unearthed it, and as she held it in her hand, she felt a strange connection to this forgotten piece of jewelry. Back in her cottage, Lily examined the locket more closely. It was made of silver with a hint of gold, and its surface was adorned with delicate engravings of leaves and flowers. On the front, there was an image of a crescent moon, and on the back, an engraving read, “To the one who seeks the truth.” The locket was sealed tightly, and Lily couldn't open it no matter how hard she tried. Determined to solve the mystery, Lily embarked on a quest to find someone who could open the locket. She asked the village blacksmith, the wise old woman who lived on the hill, and even the town's mayor, but none of them could unlock its secrets. Feeling a bit discouraged, Lily spent her days reading about ancient relics and searching for clues in the library. One day, while immersed in an old book about mystical lockets, Lily came across a passage that mentioned the existence of a "key of the heart." It said that this key could open the most stubborn of locks, but it was hidden within each person, waiting to be discovered. This newfound knowledge gave Lily a renewed sense of hope and determination. The next morning, Lily decided to visit the village's recluse, an elderly woman rumored to have deep knowledge of the heart. The recluse lived in a remote cottage surrounded by a lush garden. Lily knocked on the door and explained her quest. The old woman listened attentively and finally agreed to help. She told Lily that the key to opening the locket was hidden within her heart and that she needed to meditate on her truest desires and intentions. Lily followed the recluse's advice, sitting beneath the ancient oak tree where she had found the locket. She closed her eyes, focused on her heart's deepest desires, and as she did, she felt the locket warming in her hand. When she opened her eyes, she found the locket had sprung open, revealing a tiny, folded parchment inside. With trembling hands, she carefully unfolded it and read the message: "The truth lies in the journey, not the destination." The mystery of the locket was solved, but Lily realized that the real treasure was the journey of self-discovery she had undertaken. She understood that her quest had led her to understand her heart's desires and the power of her own determination.

Question 27

Rearrange them to form a logically coherent paragraph 1️⃣ Start-ups are increasingly adopting artificial intelligence to automate routine operations and reduce human error. 2️⃣ Investors are keen to fund ventures that can demonstrate scalable AI-driven business models. 3️⃣ As competition intensifies, companies seek innovative tools to gain a market edge. 4️⃣ However, reliance on AI also raises ethical concerns about transparency and job displacement. Q1. After rearranging into a coherent paragraph, which sentence will come second? (Enter the integer only)

Options:

- (A) undefined

Correct Answer: Option ()

Explanation:
Q1: The paragraph logically opens with the competitive landscape (3) → AI adoption (1) → funding interest (2) → concerns (4). Why the correct order is 3 → 1 → 2 → 4 1) Opener = 3 Role: Sets the context/problem : rising competition. Logic: A good first sentence frames why the topic matters. "As competition intensifies…" naturally introduces the need for solutions. 2) Next = 1 Link to 3: Cause → Response From "competition intensifies" (3) to "adopting AI" (1) as the solution firms choose to gain an edge. Flow device: "seek innovative tools" (3) → "adopting AI to automate & reduce error" (1) is a direct, specific instantiation of that search. 3) Then = 2 Narrative progression: After establishing adoption, we move to market consequences —specifically, investor behavior . Coherence: It's natural to go from firms adopting AI (1) to investors supporting scalable AI models (2). 4) Conclusion = 4 Why last: Starts with "However," a contrastive connector that signals a caveat/closure point. "Also" presupposes prior mention of AI use; it works best after we've discussed adoption and investment, not before. Function: Provides a balanced concluding perspective by highlighting ethical risks.

Type only the integer (1/2/3/4/5) as your answer. Question Neither the manager nor his assistants was willing to accept the responsibility. No error

Options:

- (A) undefined

> 💡 Explanation:
> When two subjects are joined by neither … nor … , the verb agrees with the nearest subject (the one immediately before the verb). If the nearest subject is singular , use singular verb. If the nearest subject is plural , use plural verb. Why part 3 is wrong Here the two joined subjects are: “the manager” (singular) and “his assistants” (plural). The verb must therefore agree with the nearest subject to the verb — i.e., “assistants” (plural). So the correct verb is were , not was . Thus part 3 (“was willing to accept”) contains the error. Correct sentence: Neither the manager nor his assistants were willing to accept the responsibility. Short examples to remember Neither the coach nor the players were ready. (players = nearest → plural) Neither the players nor the coach was ready. (coach = nearest → singular) Neither the cat nor the dogs are outside. (dogs nearest → plural)
